Encouraging Statement of the Present Condition and Prospects of the Church -An Affecting Incident.

NASHVILLE, May 3.—The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, began its session here to-day, the senior Eishop Paine presiding. The bishops' address was read by Bishop McTycire. It reviews the work of the Church for the four years past, and gives a statement of the present condition and present on the form. present condition and prospects as cause for gratitude. It shows an increase of 247 itin rant ministers and an increase of the m nsission fund in four years has increase $111,438. The Church has over 5000 mer bers in the Indian mission and 1000 the Mexican border, and the same numb in the Central Mexican mission; an increase in the Sunday-schools of 2071 pupils. The circulation of Sunday-school literature is now over 400,000. The address also shows a healthy financial condition of the publishinghouse at Nashville; urges steps to be take house at Nashville; urges steps to be taken preparatory to a proper celebration of the coming centenary of American Methodism; urges an increase of facilities for providing colored Methodist organizations with pastors and teachers of their race. In recommending an addition to the College of Bishops he suggests that with three new bishops the work of the church can be done in the next four years.

ence of the Methodist Episcopal Church South:

DEAR BRETHERS—While joining heartily with my colleagues to they address you have heard, I beg your indulgance to make a few remarks of a personal character. During nearly sixty-five years I have had the honor of being an literamt Methodist preacher and for thirty-six years a bishop. In the General Conference of 1824 I was a delegate, and as bishop or delegate have attended every session since then. For the confolence in my reliability, indicated by these facts, I wish to now renarm my most carnest gratitude. To my much respected colleagues in the episcopacy, between whom and myrelf the utmost cordial feelings have been unvaryingly maintained, I tender my thanks. They have generously supplied my lack of sorvice by doing double duty, and now, beloved brethren, worn down with age and infamilies, I ask to be permitted to retire from future active service. Permit me, in conclusion, to congratulate you upon the auspicious circumstances under which you have met, and to remind you of your high responsibility to fod and His church. Should it be allowed me in making this, probably my last communication to a General Conference, to express the results of my experience and observation as to the doctrines and polity of our belove! Methodism, I would say, siter devoting a lifetime to the study of its doctrines, my conviction as to their spiritualness has strengthened, and my estimation of the importance of maintaining the essential features of its polity has increased. I do most devoutly thank God that in early life I became a Methodist tilmerant preacher and have continued such, but above all I reloice in the religious experience which Methodism presents as the privilege of its members: "The joy unspeckable and full of story."

Long before the venerable bishop had ceased reading the above, nearly all the congregation caught up the hymn, "Through many dangers, toils and so rea,"

Lexington Races. Lexington Races.

Lexington, May 3.—The Kentucky Association continued their meeting to-day. The attendance was large, the weather warm and cloudy, and the track in good condition, but dusty. Betting was very light. Three very good races were run, but the interest was somewhat detracted from the two-year-old race on account of a bad start. T. J. Bush, vice-president of the association was the
